2 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
3 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

4 United States of America,

5 Plaintiff

6 v.

7 Billy James Cooks,

8 Defendant

Case No. 2:24-cr-00128-CDS-MDC

Order Granting Defendant's Motions for Appointment of Counsel and Leave to File
Under Seal

[ECF Nos. 5, 6]

9
10 Billy Cooks began a five-year term of supervised release after completing a one-hundred-
11 fifty-six-month sentence for drug trafficking conspiracy and conspiracy to launder money. ECF
12 No. 4-2. Cooks now moves for the appointment of counsel and for leave to file his financial 13 affidavit under seal. ECF No. 5; ECF No. 6. Because Cooks has demonstrated an inability to 14 afford an attorney, I grant his motions for appointment of counsel and for leave to file his 15 financial affidavit under seal.¹

16 I. Cooks is entitled to a court-appointed attorney.

17 District judges have discretion to appoint counsel for “any person financially unable to 18 obtain adequate representation.” LCR 44-1 (citing the Plan for Administration of the Criminal 19 Justice Act (CJA) of 1964). Eligibility for court-appointed counsel is determined by assessing the 20 person’s financial affidavit under a deferential standard: “[a]ny doubts about a person’s
21 eligibility should be resolved in favor of eligibility.” CJA at 7–8. Cooks’s financial affidavit
22 confirms his inability to afford an attorney and his need for one to be appointed, so I grant the 23 request to appoint counsel.

26
¹ The court notes that the local rule regarding sealings is Local Rule IA 10-5 (not Local Rule 10-5 as cited in Cooks’s motion).

1 II. Cooks's financial affidavit will remain sealed.

2 In the Ninth Circuit, there is a "strong presumption in favor of access to court records."
 3 Foltz v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 331 F.3d 1122, 1135 (9th Cir. 2003). "Nonetheless, access to
 4 judicial records is not absolute." Kamakana v. City & Cnty. of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1175 (9th Cir.
 5 2006). A defendant seeking free appointed counsel has the burden of proof to establish financial
 6 status. United States v. Schmitz, 525 F.2d 793 (9th Cir. 1975). Cooks requests to maintain the seal
 7 on the personal financial affidavit used in support of his request for counsel. Other courts in the 8 Ninth Circuit and in this district have recognized that traditional sealing standards do not apply
 9 to financial affidavits because they are administrative in nature. United States v. Lexin, 434 F. Supp.
 10 2d 836, 847–49 (S.D. Cal. 2006) (finding that because "[t]he documents containing the financial
 11 information of a [d]efendant requesting appointment of counsel that are submitted to the court
 12 are not related to the process of adjudicating whether defendants are guilty or innocent of the 13 crimes on which they are charged," such documents "are not judicial documents" and are instead 14 "administrative documents not subject to disclosure to the public or press"); see also United States
 15 v. Watson, 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 47405, *3 (D. Nev. Mar. 13, 2025). I agree with this reasoning
 16 and adopt it here. Because Cooks's affidavit contains personal financial information that the 17 public does not need access to, I grant his request for leave to file the affidavit under seal.

18 III. Conclusion

19 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Cooks's motion for appointment of counsel [ECF No. 5]
 20 is GRANTED.

21 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Cooks's motion for leave to file under seal [ECF No. 6]
 22 is GRANTED. The Clerk of Court is directed to maintain the seal on ECF No. 7.
